

Fjord Foundation - fictional scanned report

Governance: The board commits to an annual external review of the information security policy. The first review is scheduled for November. This commitment is approved and funded.